DAILY SENTINEL.

THE DECLINE IN COTTON.

The great fall in cotton seriously affects business prospects in the South. The planters will not make their expenses, and those who have rented land will lose money. A large amount of Northern capital invested in cotton planting will be lost. Cotton of the new crop now coming into market is selling in the principal cotton depots of the South at fourteen or fifteen cents, tax included. The buyer generally pays the tax, so the planter obtains about twelve and a half cents, currency, a pound.

All the expenses attending the cotton culture are double what they were before the war. The twelve and a half cents a pound which the cotton grower receives will be worth to him but six and a quarter cents, compared with the specie price of 1860. It is impossible that cotton can be made another season at this price.

But the price is still further to decline, as we hear from the state of the cotton trade abroad. East India and Egyptian cotton will supply the Liverpool market at less rates even than the present.

East India cotton is now quoted at Liverpool at sevenpence, and can be afforded with fair profit at fourpence halfpenny.—This will close the Liverpool market against United States cotton for the future. Cotton will cease to be an American staple.

With what extraordinary wisdom then did Mr. Morrill, in his defence of the cotton tax, urge that the cotton culture was the most productive of all products in this country, and the most able of all to bear taxation. Because cotton was at thirty cents at one time, he supposed, perhaps, that it would never decline, even in competition with the product of India. Any well-informed cotton trader could have told him better. Besides, he made no allowance, it seems, for the demoralization and destruction of black labor in the South.

It is reported that at Memphis, a great cotton mart, the decline of cotton causes much embarrassment, and that many persons there attribute it to combinations in Liverpool and New York against the Southern States.

But it so happens that the Liverpool and New York cotton trade severely suffers by the decline, and that many of the dealers in the staple are brought by it to the verge of bankruptcy. Large amounts have been lost in New York, as well as in Liverpool, in vain efforts to sustain the price.

The dry-goods market in New York and elsewhere feels the cotton decline. The domestic and imported goods are selling below cost. Some cottons bring less than they did before the war, and still the tendency is downward.

Cotton factors in the South advise planters not to hold back their crops in the hope of a rise of a cent or two a pound, as there is more likelihood of further decline than of advance.

It ought to be the very first business of Congress, at the ensuing session, to repeal the cotton tax, and provide for refunding what has been collected upon the crop of this season.—National Intelligencer.

From the New York World.

If the Democrats carry New York and other States, as we expect, the country will demand the settlement of the Reconstruction question without further delay. Seeing that the Radical scheme cannot succeed, the people will be impatient of persistence in it. There will arise a moral necessity for an immediate settlement on a more liberal basis. We trust that such a settlement will be reached on the basis of a compromise in which the Republican party will yield something. President Johnson something, the South something, the Democratic party something. Each party will have advantages which the others cannot fail to recognize; which is a state of things favorable to mutual concessions and a liberal adjustment of differences. The strong point of the Republicans will be their large present majorities in Congress; the strong point of the Democrats their certainty of defeating the Radical policy; the strong point of the South the ability of its white inhabitants to render the Reconstruction scheme contemptible by standing aloof and surrendering the control of it to the negroes. Both the South and the Democratic party would be willing to make some concessions to have the question settled now, instead of two or four years hence. The Republicans had better make concessions than to stand out and lose all. A settlement thus reached would have this great advantage: that, being established by the mutual consent of all parties, it would bind the honor of all and be secure from subsequent disturbance. Whatever is deemed essential could at once be put into the Constitution by the prompt ratification of all the States; and neither party would be a future hot-bed of sedition as it might under the soreness and humiliation of a complete and insolent triumph by its adversary. In proposing as the ground of settlement an amendment securing perfect equality of civil rights, we did not intend to assume authority that does not belong to us and offer an ultimatum, but only to express an opinion which we had no doubt the Democratic party would readily assent to.

Near Sherman, Texas, recently, Mrs. Beatty, a widow lady, met her death in a singular manner. She was in the act of getting on a horse, when a common sewing needle, which stuck in her dress, caught in the saddle and was driven in her body near the breast, slightly piercing her heart. She lived only about half an hour.

A very worthy fisherman by the name of Grizzle, was drowned some time since, and all search for his body proved unavailing. After it had been in the water some months, however, it was discovered floating on the surface, and taken to the shore, whereupon Mr. Smith was dispatched to convey the intelligence to the much afflicted widow.

"Well, Mrs. Grizzle, we have found Mr. Grizzle's body."

"You don't say so?"

"Yes we have—the jury has set on it, and found it full of eels!"

"You don't say Mr. Grizzle's body is full of eels?"

"Yes it is, and we want to know what you will have done with it?"

"Why how many eels do you think there is in him?"

"Why, about a bushel."

"Well, then, I think you had better send the eels up to the house, and set him again."

An endowment policy presents the double attraction of providing for one's family or other dependents in case he should be cut off before a specified age, or of securing to himself independence, in case he attains the age. Thus insuring for ten years, a note for one half of the cost will be taken by paying six per cent interest.

RAILROADS.

IMPORTANT TO

CAROLINA SHIPPERS.

THE NEW

Baltimore and Carolina Grand Trunk

FREIGHT LINE,

VIA PETERSBURG, Va.,

Comprising the following great Freight Routes:

THE POWHATAN

Steamboat Company's Freight Line of Steamers,

PETERSBURG AND WELDON,

RALEIGH AND GASTON,

NORTH CAROLINA,

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA,

WILMINGTON AND WELDON,

ATLANTIC AND NORTH CAROLINA,

WILMINGTON AND MANCHESTER,

CHARLOTTE AND SOUTH CAROLINA R. R.,

And their connections.

Time Quick and Rates Low.

THIS NEW TRUNK LINE FORMS A GREAT FREIGHT ROUTE between Baltimore and Weldon, Warrenton, Raleigh, Hillsboro', Lexington, Salisbury, Morganton, Charlotte, Lincolnton, Goldsboro', Newbern, Beaufort, Wilmington, Chesterville, Winsboro', Columbia, Sumterville, Manchester, and all intermediate points on and near these great Railways and their connections.

The Powhatan Steamers connect at Petersburg with Petersburg Railway for all points in the Carolinas. Cars are run alongside of Steamers' Wharf and goods transferred with careful handling. Cars are run through without breaking bulk between Petersburg and Raleigh, Charlotte, Goldsboro', Wilmington, &c., &c. This Inland Line possesses many advantages over a Sea Route. Marine risk is small and insurance is comparatively nothing. The Wharf of the Powhatan Steamers being situated in the very centre of the great shipping district of Baltimore, renders it convenient to shippers, and drayage is very small.

Great attention paid to consignments of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, Rosin, &c. &c. All produce forwarded at the lowest possible rates.

☞ To insure transportation over this Inland Fast Line, mark all goods, whether Northward or Southward bound, "VIA PETERSBURG."

☞ Freight landed in Baltimore day following delivery to the Steamers.

Through Receipts are given and fixed rate per 100 pounds guaranteed both ways.

☞ Rates in every case same as via Bay Line and Portsmouth to and from Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

N B.—With regard to last named points, freight is forwarded to and from Petersburg by Philadelphia and N. Y. Steamers.

THE COTTON MARKET.

The views expressed by the National Intelligencer, in an article on our first page, presents a discouraging prospect to cotton planters. For some time our own views have led us to the same conclusions. Hired negro labor, its character and price, we have believed, from the first, cannot compete with the cheaper and better regulated labor of India or Egypt. Even our superior lands, and the article we produce, cannot enable us entirely to compete with them, and it has been our opinion, since the results of the past year were known, that unless an entire change in the policy of the Radical party, in regard to the colored race, is effected speedily, cotton must be abandoned, to a great extent, in the Southern States. We were satisfied, in the beginning of the present year, that the necessities of our people, and their anxiety to recover from their depressed pecuniary condition, were misleading them to risk too much upon the persdventure of making a large cotton crop, to the neglect of others directly essential to the preservation of life.

The result is, that our information leads us to conclude, that the disasters to all our crops, and the low price of cotton, are exciting the most fearful forebodings as to the future. Scarcely any section of the State has made enough,—at any rate, no large surplus of grain,—to meet the wants of the people. General distrust and doubt fill the minds of even the most hopeful.

No cotton planter, that we hear of, hopes to be reimbursed fully for the cost of cultivating the crop he has made, from the present crop, at existing prices. What has been picked is represented as very light, and the fear is that the crop will fall below one half of what was expected.

There are two causes for this. Hitherto, in this State, the cotton crop has been remarkably preserved from the disasters of rust and vermin, which had so frequently destroyed the crop in the more Southern States. Ordinarily, the seasons have been favorable to its cultivation. The present year, however, has shown that, hereafter, North Carolina may expect to have its share of the casualties which afflict the production of cotton in the Southern States.

Perhaps the greatest drawback, which seems to settle down upon the minds of our planters, gradually, yet firmly, is the growing conviction that, under the present regime, the negro is becoming less and less reliable, every day, as a field laborer. Politics and freedom, under the baleful teachings which they have received, are rendering them almost a nuisance, instead of real helpers, on the farms. Saturdays must now be spent in going to the neighboring villages or cross-road gatherings to hear the news and to talk politics. The nightly meetings of the Leagues, or the meetings of other kinds on the farm at home or on the neighboring farms, have brought on a languor, which cannot be shaken off at an early hour, and few now enter upon the labors of the day until the sun has been up an hour or an hour and a half. Nevertheless, the necessities of the negro laboring man were never so great as now, and hence he insists upon full prices for half or two-thirds of the labor formerly performed.—His wife and children, who were formerly supported by the owner, but who were required to perform some labor, have now to be provided for by the husband and father, who, in return, receives little or no aid from them in the way of labor. The children, from 6 to 15 or 18 years of age, of course, under the teachings they have received, must go to school, and as the "colored ladies" cannot now perform field work, a field laborer in the country can procure no labor for them. In nineteen cases out of twenty, their condition, as has been shown by actual experiment, can be made no better by either renting or giving them land to cultivate. Their heads are so filled with politics and foolish schemes of future greatness or wealth, that the idea of steady hard work, to make a living, has been excluded.

We were told of a case, a few days ago, by reliable persons, which actually occurred the present year in this County, and we fear is only one of a hundred. An able-bodied, active colored man, of more than ordinary sense, applied to his old owner, or some other white friend, to rent him land at the ordinary price, to be worked by him on shares. The white man agreed to let him have all he wanted. He engaged another neighboring white man to do his plowing for him, with a pledge that he would, in turn, pay for the plowing by working it out for the white man. He pitched his crop of corn and cotton for a full man's work, and the white man executed his pledge to do the plowing as he was called on. The colored man was seldom seen in his crop at work. He was off at every political gathering. He was admonished by his friends of what would be the result, but to no purpose. We are informed that the colored people thought he was the greatest "politicianer" in the neighborhood. The result is, that the gentleman who did his plowing says he owes him for six days work, and, to the best of his judgment, the colored man will not make more than one bushel of corn, and, if we do not mistake, about thirty pounds of cotton for his year's work,—the grass and weeds having literally destroyed it. This, we say, is one case in a hundred, though we are glad to know there are some honorable exceptions. Many colored men, with the same chance, who are industrious and who eschew politics and the Leagues, would make a good living.

OUR POSITION.

Our friend of the Western Democrat, alluding to the publication in the Sentinel of Gov. Graham's recent letter, comments upon what he is pleased to term our "reticence," and invites the expression of our views "now that Gov. Graham has spoken,"—or something to that effect. In another part of the same paper is the statement, made in terms of commendation, that the Sentinel has advised that there should be no organized opposition to the calling of a Convention. The inference,—which, we trust, the Democrat did not really design,—is that the Editors of this paper are prepared to surrender their convictions at the bidding of Gov. Graham.

Certainly, there is no man in North Carolina for whose opinions we have higher respect than for those of the distinguished gentleman referred to. Such is our perfect confidence in his sagacity as a statesman, and his exalted purity of character as a man, that we should weigh any counsel he might give a very long time, before opposing our views to the suggestions of his ripe judgment. But we hope that we are incapable of yielding deliberate and well-matured opinions, because we may happen to find that they are adverse to those entertained by gentlemen to whom we have generally looked up for guidance and direction.

Really, however, there is but one solitary point of difference between Gov. Graham and ourselves. He thinks that all qualified men should register, and that they should vote against a Convention or not vote at all on that question. We think that every man, who is entitled to do so, should register, but that it will be mistaken policy to make a concerted show of opposition to the call of a Convention, either by action or non-action. In the first place, we are persuaded that such an opposition will be useless. There are thousands of Conservative men in the State, who cannot be divested of apprehension growing out of the silly cry of confiscation, who will vote for a Convention; and we do not think that one can be defeated. We propose to leave to every man's honest, conscientious convictions of interest and duty, his course in this matter; while we appeal to all lovers of Constitutional liberty and Union to leave no legitimate stone unturned in order to secure the ascendancy in the Convention.

Here ceases the only discrepancy between our own and Gov. Graham's views. In all else that he says we heartily concur.

We would have the Convention, when it meets, frame such a Constitution as would best promote the honor and interests of North Carolina, and enable all her people, white and colored, to live in peace and prosperity.

If a Constitution, proscriptive and oppressive in its character, is attempted to be fastened upon our people, we trust that all good citizens will rally, as one man, (as we believe they will,) for its rejection!

That is our position.

A SIGNIFICANT FACT.—It is stated, in our to-day's telegraphic dispatches from Washington, that Gen. Howard, Chief of the Freedmen's Bureau, who certainly has the amplest opportunities of information, announces that the negro population of the South has decreased over a million and a quarter since their emancipation. This is a most astounding revelation, and we are inclined to think that the mortality is much exaggerated, although there can be no doubt that it has been very great. Is there not a lesson in this for the black man? Will he not realize the disastrous consequences to his race of pursuing lives of indolence and thriftlessness, and of cutting themselves off from reliance upon, and the sympathies of, those who are their best friends, and their natural protectors? At any such an approximate rate of decrease, how long will it be before the colored race becomes a more insignificant remnant than even the aboriginal population of the country? What will then be the condition of the negroes?—a feeble people, who have alienated the greater and best part of the whites by insolent claims to political power and supremacy, and by a course of conduct, which is calculated to array the races against each other.

Thus it is, that nature and physiology, themselves, proclaim that this is the country of the white man,—his to govern and to advance to higher and still higher steeps of greatness and enlightenment.

GEN. CANBY'S ORDER—CORRECTION.

Gov. Worth, on yesterday, received the following telegram from Gen. Canby, making certain corrections in his Election Order. The Order, as corrected, will be found on our fourth page, to-day, and will be kept standing, for the public information, until the election:

HEAD QRS 2ND MILITARY DISTRICT,
Charleston, Oct. 22, 1867.

To His Excellency Gov. Worth:

The Counties of Alleghany, Ashe, Surry, Watauga and Yadkin are entitled to four (4) not three (3) delegates, as in the Order. The County of Anson to two (2) not one (1.) The County of Guilford to two (2) not three (3). And the Counties of Tyrrell and Washington to one (1) not two (2).

The Order will be at once corrected.

ED. R. S. CANBY,
Bt. Maj. Gen. Com'g.

IT IS stated that the Radical Executive Committee at Washington sent $10,000 to Richmond, a few days since, to be used among the negroes before the election. Large sums have doubtless been sent to this State, also, for the support of white and black Radical orators.

IT SEEMS that it is the President, and not Gen. Grant, who has ordered Capt. Schaff to be tried for the brutal and wilful murder of Col. Shepard, near Mobile.

Butler's butler having secreted some teaspoons from his master's cupboard at Lowell, (with various initials) the General reproved him sternly: "When I took you for my butler, I did not think that you would take me for your New Orleans."—N. Y. World.

RALEIGH AND THE RAILROADS.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I thank you for your notice of my article. Do not understand me as urging the Railroad Companies to abandon through travel and freight. I insist, however, they should not sacrifice local travel and local freight.

The present schedule on the North Carolina Railroad (the train going East reaching Raleigh at 10 A. M., and going West leaving at 3½ o'clock, P. M.) gives a good opportunity of testing the question. Let our merchants endeavor to convince persons living in Orange, Alamance, &c., that they can save the expenses of a trip to Raleigh in making their Fall and Winter purchases. Let them urge this by advertisements and handbills. Let them explain the convenient arrangement of the new schedule. They have varied assortments of goods. Let them resolve to deal fairly, to give good bargains and let the people at a distance know it.

My object is to develope a new travel.—This should be a cardinal point with the Railroads. Let Mr. Turner agree to sell tickets "to Raleigh and return" at reduced prices. The Company will make by the reduction, because, otherwise, there will be no travel. The same policy could be extended to Charlotte, Salisbury, &c.

This advantageous schedule should be advertised by the Railroad Company by handbills as well as by the newspapers.—Two days ago I saw two ladies who had travelled twelve miles to a depot, thence to Raleigh—back again the same night—on purpose to "do their shopping" here.—These two will increase to hundreds and thousands, if the policy I recommend be pursued.

And I do hope the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Company will amend their schedules in conformity to this policy. Think of two trains leaving Raleigh, both in the morning—two trains arriving at Raleigh, both in the evening. No man can come to Raleigh and go away without staying all night. A mother of a family, residing on this road, cannot come here to buy articles for her household, without breaking into her family arrangements—can't leave "the baby" in charge of a friend and spend a few hours in the Capital of the State! I can't believe in the Railroad sagacity of men, who will persist in this management. Gentlemen, living along the line of the road, desiring to attend Court in Wake, are forced to come in their buggies, as in old times.

You Editors are interested in this matter. If people can be induced to visit Raleigh frequently for business and pleasure, they will take Raleigh newspapers. This is a first rate centre for the publication of newspapers. The Sentinel ought to be one of the best supported journals in the country, outside of the great cities. It is not, because of the horrible Railroad schedules.

I am not a merchant, Messrs. Editors, but I am a citizen of Raleigh, and a Stockholder in the two Railroads above named. I desire to see the prosperity of all, and hence I write. Yours truly, PROGRESS.

From the Nashville Union and Dispatch, Oct. 16.

KILLING OF A DESPERADO IN TENNESSEE.

A private letter informs us that a noted desperado, by the name of Bill Sizemore, was killed in Rogersville on the 11th, inst., where he has been living since the war.—His career of crime has been an extraordinary one. At the breaking out of the rebellion he joined the Confederate army, but soon threw off all discipline and became a sort of independent scout, harrassing the Union people terribly, and he is reported to have killed seventeen Union men during the forays made into the northern portion of upper East Tennessee. Seeing that the Federals were gaining possession of East Tennessee, and that they would soon control the whole of that section, he deserted and joined the Federal army. Here again he managed to give his bad passions full sway in the capacity of a bushwhacker.—His persecution of Southern sympathizers was more relentless and inhuman than of the Union men, and he is said to have murdered twenty of them in cold blood. During the last two moths he shot down two men in the streets of Rogersville. The last one of these was a Federal soldier by the name of Webster, whose only offence was that he had declared himself a Conservative. He was arrested for the last murder and bound over to the Circuit Court for trial, some Radicals bailing him to keep him out of jail. On the 11th. inst., a Union soldier shot him dead within ten steps of where he had killed poor Webster, only a few weeks ago. No attempt was made to arrest Willis, for every one felt that he had performed a praiseworthy act in ridding the country of the desperado. Sizemore's body lay in the street nearly an hour before any one would go to the assistance of his wife to take it to his late home. This man Sizemore was a terror to the people of Hawkins County, and it will be difficult to get a jury in that County who will convict his slayer of murder.

OUR DUTY.—Let the Conservatives organize in every county. Let the ablest and best men eligible be selected as candidates and voted for, whether the voter opposes the Convention either by a direct vote or by not voting upon the question. No good citizen, however indifferent he may be in regard to ordinary elections, can afford to remain from the polls at this one. No mere party contest is to take place, but the fundamental law of the State and the continued supremacy of the whites are at stake.—This election will decide whether North Carolina is to be controlled by the virtue, intelligence and character of the State, or by ignorance and corruption—whether her people are to make her laws, or unknown strangers to do so—whether the owners of her soil and property are to fashion her tax bills, or those who have no personal interest here are to do so. It is a fearful decision, and its issue will decide the fate of North Carolina for years to come. It is easy to destroy the Constitution and laws we have, but a century may not restore them to their present condition of excellence—the peace and prosperity of the State may be so checked by the result that years of labor may be passed in vain endeavors to warm them into renewed life.—Wil. Journal.

Boston boasts a murder a week.—Washington Chronicle.

There is no Southern city that "boasts a murder a week." Massachusetts needs reconstructing. When Congress convenes, it should immediately appoint a special committee to inquire into her loyalty, and whether she has a "republican form of government" or not. In this connection we repeat what we said the other day, that the million of souls in the city of New York have produced within the last twelve months more acts of flagrant crime than the entire population of the Southern States.—Nat. Intel.

An article in one of the November magazines, upon "Our Doctors in the Rebellion," cites a circular from the Surgeon-General's Office, in which it is said that only 105 sabre wounds and 143 bayonet wounds were reported from the field during the first three years of the war. If this be so, one is inclined to read with some suspicion the dreadful hackings with sabre and proddings with bayonet spoken of in various reports and histories of actions.

For the Sentinel.

BEHIND THE SCENES.

PHILOSOPHICAL, PHILOLOGICAL AND PISCATORIAL.

(Scene 3—Present X. P. G. and Font.)

X. P. G.—Font, you've travelled in furrin parts.

F.—You may well say that. I've travelled.

X. P. G.—And learn't much wisdom, doubtless. I believe you've been to Mexico.

F.—No sir-ree! I have been to Ma kee-co.

X. P. G.—Did you go by way of Cuby?

F.—Koo-bah, if you please. No sir, not by Koo-bah.

X. P. G.—I s'pose you crossed the Rio Grande at Mata-me ras?

F.—I have been on the Rio Gran-da, and spent two nights at Ma-tamm-or vrah.

X. P. G.—And so you did not go round by Chi-a hewy-hewy?

F.—Do you mean Chee-wah-wah?

X. P. G.—No.

F.—Spell it.

X. P. G.—Chi-a-hua-hua.

F.—I thought so. Governor, you are worse than old Bob Lee, in your pronunciation. I called on him once, on the Rappahannock, when I went to the wars, you know. I had my great fish plan to expound. And don't you think the old Hottentot said to me, "Font, my old Polyphemus, walk up stars." Says I—"Bob Lee, I'll see you —— first, unless you talk better English. And your lousy army may all starve. My glorious scheme for propagating fish, and saving your gaunt-bellied boys, shall die with me, before my ear shall be so tortured." And what do you think the old fellow did?

X. P. G.—Kicked you down stairs, I suppose. You deserved it.

F.—No he did'nt. But en passant, Gus, you get down stairs fast enough, without any kicking—"natural alacrity at sinking," you know,—nat'ral tendency downwards, gravitation—ha! ha!

X. P. G.—Well, breathe awhile, my old fisherman, and then tell us what the old traitor told you.

F.—He told me nothing—but ordered his Aid to have "that man sent home to his friends to be taken care of." He thought I had'nt sense enough to shoot the right way.

X. P. G.—Well, you got home, Font.

F.—Yes, and the next thing I knew they were about putting me in a Lunatic Asylum in Georgia. They mistook the man—and all because old Lee knows nothing about the English language. And now he is President of a college, and I am—what am I, Governor?

X. P. G.—Heaven only knows, Font—a queer fish, any how.

F.—Yes you do know. I am a hanger on to the coat tail of an Ex Provisional Governor—and a very poor creature I am!—and even the little niggers laugh at me—boo! boo! oo!

X. P. G.—Never mind, my dear Font—they laugh at me, too.

F.—I know they do. But I can say one thing. Everybody does not hate me. Some white people, at least, remembering, I spose, what I used to be, take pity on me.

X. P. G.—Come, come, Font! Blow your nose; and let us talk about furrin parts again. Were you at St. Salvador?—They say it is a hot place

F.—Hot as — any other place on this side of that, I assure you. Some people think Andy piously wished to prepare you for the other place, by giving you this little foretaste. Others think he did not care so much about that, as to "get shut" of your importunities. He knew if you once went, he should never hear from you again. But you had kind friends in the Senate. They saved you. Ain't you sorry you cussed 'em so?

X. P. G.—Never mind about that now.—Ain't there some big mountains there?

F.—Gulgers!

X. P. G.—Are there big rocks, high up?

F.—You may say that.

X. P. G.—Do they fall up or down?

F.—Ha! ha! I take. They tumble down by the laws of gravitation—which are sometimes called the laws of Nature—and sometimes the laws of God.

X. P. G.—So they tumble down—do they? Nat'rally, and accordin' to the laws of God?

F.—Exactly. I suppose they never tried to tumble up.

X. P. G.—I have, Font, and was awfully bothered. So I gave it up in despair—and took to tumbling the right way—accordin' to nature—.

F.—Stop! Stop! my friend. I can't stand everything. Others may joke me on this subject. They have some cause,—but tu Brute! It is too bad.

X. P. G.—I was never more serious, believe me. I spoke not of "pushing and pulling" there. I have other fish to fry—eh!

F.—Confound you! and the whole piscatory race! I wish some amiable whale could be found with a stomach to swallow you and all other ingrates and hyprocritical pretenders. You owe me much. I have kept you in countenance for years. You would have nat'rally tumbled down—down—beyond the hope of resurrection, if I had not held you back. I have soiled my soul, in trying to save you And thus am I girded, in the house of my friends. A pretty spectacle have I made myself to angels, and men—and niggers!

(Exit Font in a rage.)

X. P. G.—(Solus)—Poor Font! He was born for better things! He was a gentleman—and I made him my man Friday!—Oh what a fall was there, my country! Lost as I am to kindly feelings, I have some compunctious visitings about him. He is faithful, so long as you feed him. I could better spare a better man. I cannot spare Font. I have much work for him to do—poor innocent!—dirty work it is, Heaven knows, but he must do it. Prospero had his Caliban. I have my Pontleroy. He may growl, but he shall crawl at my feet, and do my bidding. Who was Prospero? He only governed an Island. I am monarch of all I survey—(places his arm a kimbo.) At the tap of my royal drum legions of the Faithful (Leaguers?) are ready to rush at the spoils. I can kill—and make alive again. I am a power in the land, terrible to mine enemies—and I will scourge them to the uttermost. Selah!

What care I for scoffs and sneers? Let them pour away. The cold water rolls from the back of the duck, and I shake myself in triumph. Talk to me of manhood and truth. I have wounds which honor cannot heal—broken limbs which honor can never set. And I will have my revenge. I will heap up around me broken fortunes—aye and broken hearts. It shall be known that there is iron in this blood—and in this heart, too!

But poor Font must be appeased. I know his price. I will toss him a few crumbs, and he will lick my hand again.

(EXIT X. P. G.)

A western democratic paper says the democratic vote in Ohio would have been increased by ten thousand if Vallandigham had remained at home and kept his lips sealed. The State Committee did try to suppress him, but the democratic masses would have him on the stump.

A "loyal" Bureaucrat, in Franklin county, Virginia, recently prohibited a candidate for the Convention from running on the ground that he was a Conservative (Rebel), and informed Gen. Schofield of the circumstances. The General replied ordering him to revoke the order immediately.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

CONSERVATIVES OF WAKE, RALLY!

We are authorized to state, after consultation with many Conservatives, that meetings will be called in each county precinct, to assemble on Saturday next, the 26th. inst., at the usual place of election, to suggest the names of candidates for the State Convention, and also to appoint delegates to a county Convention, to be held at the Court House in Raleigh, on Thursday, the 31st. of October, at 12 o'clock, to nominate candidates for the State Convention and to transact such other business as may be deemed necessary.

All Conservative Union men are urged to be present at the precinct meetings, and to be prompt to meet at the county Convention to nominate candidates.

Remember the election is only thirty days off. MANY CONSERVATIVES.

RALLY, CONSERVATIVES!—We are requested to announce that the Conservative Union men of Johnston County will hold a meeting in Smithfield, on Saturday the 26th, inst., (October) to nominate candidates for the Convention. Let all true Union Conservative men be present.

FRIENDS OF THE CONSTITUTION AND OF CIVIL LIBERTY—RALLY!!!—Let us meet at the Court House on Saturday night next to organize for the coming election.

The election is at hand! The enemy is organized and confident! He advocates a proscriptive policy, hostile to the interests and future prosperity of North Carolina!

Come one! Come all!! Without regard to former party connections—all who stand firmly by the Constitution of their country, and are lovers of civil liberty!

Let us be up and doing! Let us with one united effort defeat the schemes for our ruin, and save our government, and liberty for ourselves and our children!

Come one!! Come all!!!

MAYOR'S COURT.—D. Hinton, colored, charged with keeping a disorderly house, was returned to the County Court.

STATE ITEMS.

——The Order of Gen. Canby is published, removing the Sheriff and Magistrates of Jones county. What for? It is not stated.

——The Presbytery of Fayetteville will meet in the Presbyterian Church in Goldsboro, on Saturday next, the 26th. instant, at 11 o'clock, A. M., and the Synod of North Carolina in Newbern, on the 30th. inst.

——Sundry parties, charged with violating Order No. 32, so far as the retailing of liquor is concerned, are to be tried before a Military Commission in Newbern.

——A Freedman complains, through the columns of the Newbern Journal of Commerce, thusly:

MR. EDITOR:—I went to Mister elsworths Bank this afternune to git sum mony I had thair but the plase wast clost up, and mister elsworth has gone north Will you let me a poor cullud man know if that bank is busted up.

Saturday Oct. 19th. CAESAR

The Editor regrets his inability to give the desired information, as he has no interest and no deposits in the Freedmen's Savings Bank. He adds: "We ain't a sayin nuthin, but we thinks a heep."

——The Superior Court of New Hanover is in session,—Judge Warren on the bench, There were 614 cases on the docket, on Monday, but the Court went vigorously to work, and by evening had gone over with about five hundred of these. Some of this number were set aside; others were of such a nature that, in consequence of the workings of General Order No. 10, the Court could exercise, at present, no jurisdiction over them; and others, again, were of so simple a nature that judgment was at once given on them.

Some three years ago a man was arrested in New York and incarcerated in a foul and loathsome cell of a dungeon by Military edict, his only crime being that he had spoken "disrespectfully of Mrs. Lincoln"—but she was the wife of the Government then. The Radical papers are now saying worse things about her than were ever dreamed of by any Democrat, and no one has yet ordered the arrest of their editors. What a strange country this is getting to be.—Newark Daily Journal.

Hilton Head, South Carolina, which "rose like an exhalation" during the war, to the dimensions of a large and thriving city, is as rapidly going to decay. All that is left are two companies of soldiers and a few negroes.

Phil. Sheridan was at Buffalo on the 14th. In response to a speech of the Mayor of that city, we are informed by the telegraphic Jenkins, that Sheridan replied in "a quiet tone, and ordinary phrase." We breathe again.

THE FUNERAL OF YOUNG ELLERMEYER—MORE TROUBLE IN BALTIMORE.—The funeral of Charles A. Ellermeyer, who was killed by negroes on Thursday night, took place yesterday, and was attended by two companies of militia and a large number of others. As the militia companies, numbering some three hundred, were returning up Baltimore street, a brick was thrown into the rear of the ranks by a negro, who ran through Post-office avenue. In an instant the greatest possible excitement prevailed, and a part of the command broke ranks. A pistol shot was fired after the retreating negro, but he succeeded in making his escape. After a few minutes the line was again formed and proceeded up Baltimore street, immediately after which a negro boy ran out of South street and down Baltimore. Before reaching Holiday street he stumbled and fell, when he was kicked several times, but the prompt interference of the police protected him from further harm. While the militia was moving up Baltimore street another difficulty occurred between Light and Charles streets, and a negro, who gave the name of John Smith, was struck a blow just above the forehead, from which the blood flowed freely. The police, however, were on hand and protected him. A young man named Weaver was arrested on the charge of having attempted to strike the negro, and he was held to bail to keep the peace.

The police have arrested a number of negroes known to belong to the Butler Guards, one of the accused having boasted that he was in the disturbance and had shot a white man.—Sun, 21st.

THE TRIAL OF JEFFERSON DAVIS.—I learn from an official source to-day that the trial of Jeff. Davis will certainly take place at the November term of the United States Court, which meets at Richmond. Chief-Justice Chase will endeavor to preside, but if the term of the Supreme Court interferes with his presence in Richmond, counsel on both sides have agreed to argue certain legal points which will be raised, before Judge Underwood, and if possible, though good lawyers say this cannot be done, carry them up by a writ of error to the United States Supreme Court.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. World.

THE NEGRO OUTRAGE IN BALTIMORE.—The wanton and unprovoked outrage perpetrated in Baltimore last Thursday night by a portion of a negro military organization who fired promiscuously into a crowd standing upon the sidewalk, by which one young man innocently looking at the procession was instantly killed, is another conclusive evidence of the pernicious results of Radical incendiarism, and of the danger of attempting to confer upon an ignorant, passionate, and excitable class of people, privileges which they do not appeciate, and do not know how to use.—Nat. Intel.

THE ALABAMA ELECTION.—So far as heard from only two Conservatives have been elected to the Constitutional Convention of Alabama, called under the reconstruction laws of Congress. A most insignificant minority of the whites registered consented to vote, and of those who did vote, nine out of every ten cast their ballot against a convention. Sixteen negroes have positively been elected, and the probabilities are that fuller returns will increase the number of African constitution makers.—N. Y. Herald.

Referring to the proposed convention in Georgia, the Griffin Star says:

"So far as we have been able to learn through our Georgia exchanges, the conservatives are pretty generally settling down upon the following policy, to wit:—To vote for the ablest and most available conservative candidate, and not to vote at all on the convention question. We are inclined to think that this is the best policy, provided the conservatives can all be united upon it."

A dispatch from Washington to the Philadelphia Inquirer says: "John Surratt will be kept in jail till after Congress meets, when application will be made for the enactment of a law to transfer him to some adjoining State for trial, or to authorize a jury to be drawn from some loyal State to try him here, as it is impossible to obtain an impartial and unprejudiced jury in Washington."

A man in Russia named Kursen, a member of a fanatical religious sect, lately killed his own son and offered him as a sacrifice to God. He stabbed the little boy of seven several times in the stomach and after he was dead fell on his knees in ecstacy, imploring God to receive the offering. After being taken to prison he resolutely refused food and died of starvation before the sentence upon him could be executed.

There is a story of a party of ladies on board a ship in a storm off Cape Hatteras, who shamed their male friends by their superior resignation to the immediate prospect of shipwreck, but who, fortunately arriving at Newbern, broke into wailing and feminine execration over the saturated condition of the finery in their trunks. A woman can endure any form of death better than injury to her point lace, or having her dress stepped on.

Mrs. Margett Carr bought a black cat, in Pittsburg, the other day, for the purpose of taking three drops of blood from it, to be administered to a grandchild suffering from croup. Thereupon the old lady's neighbors raised a tumult, charging her with witchcraft, and she was obliged to call on the authorities for protection. Her lawyer brought twenty witnesses to prove that the child recovered on the moment that the dose of blood was administered.

In Newark, N. J., the other day, a young child at play was so frightened by the mischievous cry of her associates, "look out for the bull," that she fell in running with so much force as to cause her death.

Thirty-one colleges received endowment during the past year, to the amount of $3,041,000. Harvard received $400,000; Tufts, $300,000; Yale, $206,000, and Cornell University, $700,000.

Brownlow says that the world, flesh and the devil are all included in the term democracy. The Democrats on the other hand express their delight that Brownlow is not included in the term.

We are advised to watch our tongues, but, unfortunately, they are so located that we can't see them.—Louisville Journal.

Loudoun gives a Conservative majority of 72.

RICHMOND, Oct. 23, P. M

The second day of the election in this City passed without disturbance.

The Conservatives are still confident that victory is theirs. Many negroes have forgotten the names given, when they registered, and many more have since left the city.

The polls closed to night with a white majority of 521. It is estimated that there are the same number of radical whites and Conservative blacks in the City.

The vote upon the question of Convention or No Convention cannot yet be ascertained, but nine tenths of the whites voted against it.

Returns from the Counties indicate that the colored men voted en masse for Radicals and for Convention. The line between blacks and whites has been distinctly drawn.

At the solicitation of the Radicals, Schofield has ordered the polls to be again opened in the three wards to-morrow. Much dissatisfaction exists, in consequence, among the Conservatives

THE ITALIAN IMBROGLIO

PARIS, Oct. 23, P. M.

The Moniteur, this morning, in its official article announcing the cessation of warlike preparations against Italy, says:

"France beh old the spectacle of an invasion of the Papal States by armed bandits from the neighboring Provinces of Italy. She could not, consistently with her duty, dignity and national honor, suffer the September Convention to be thus violated; so she prepared to send an army across the Alps, and a fleet to Rome. Italy has since given ample pledges to fulfil, on her part, the obligations of the treaty in the largest sense. Consequently, all hostile preparations have been suspended by France."

FLORENCE, Oct. 23.

It is reported that Garibaldi not only eluded the vigilance of the government in making his escape from Caprera, but succeeded in reaching Italy, and is now with Menoth.

The Ministerial crisis has not ended. General Giraldini being unable to form a new cabinet, has given up the task.

The popular agitation is very great, and the feeling against France very bitter, while the Government officials are reproached for yielding to the dictations of Napoleon.

There have been several demonstrations of indignation in Florence. The populace, in great crowds, are beneath the windows of the Government offices, shouting for "Rome, as the Capital of Italy."

We hereby certify that the Rosadalis is prepared by a Physician, who is an experienced Pharmaceutist and Chemist, and that his remedy is an efficient and reliable one in SCROFULA, Syphilis, &c., it having performed some remarkable cures in this vicinity.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir—Please send me immediately per Express to Tarboro, two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examed its Formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it, beyond doubt, the best Alterative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, &c., with much satisfaction to myself and patients. I have also used it in Secondary and Teritary Syphilis, [one a terrible case of eight years' standing,] in which it acted with surprising and satisfactory effect—making a quick and thorough cure. I have, therefore, no hesitation in recommending it to Physicians and others, as the most reliable Alterative now known.

Respectfully yours, &c.,

A. D. NOBLES, M. D.

A Wonderful Cure of Scrofulous White Swelling.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

I hereby certify, that last September I was attacked with White Swelling of the left knee—and also with an enlargement of the glands of the neck—[one tumor reached a large size.] The swelling of the knee was enormous, and was attended with the most excruciating pains. I was so reduced that I was confined to my room over three months. My leg was so completely drawn up, that I could not bend it at all. I tried various remedies, and they failed to give me any relief. I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. The swelling in the knee and neck began to subside before I took all of the first bottle. By the time I took the second bottle, the swelling of the neck entirely disappeared and that of the knee nearly so. After taking three bottles I found myself completely well—able to walk as well as ever, &c.

Rosadalis cures Carbuncles, Boils, Pimples, &c.

Certificate from an old and much respected citizen of Greene County, now a resident of Wilson, N. C.

I hereby certify that, during the summer and fall of 1866, that I was severely afflicted with Carbuncles—having had as many as fourteen large Carbuncles, and twelve ordinary Boils. I suffered so much from them that I could not get out of the house half the time for several months. Being induced to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, I was entirely cured by the use of one bottle of that truly valuable medicine.

Consumption, in its Early Stages, can be Cured.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 4th, 1867.

Dear Dr. Lawrence—My daughter having been cured of a deeply seated disease of the lungs by your "Rosadalis." I feel it my duty to make the fact known to you for the benefit of others. She suffered nealy two years with a hard cough, which troubled her day and night; at last the emaciated form, glossy eye, night sweats, together with the cough, told too plainly that it was Consumption, beyond question, eating at her vitals. Our Physician's remedies brought no relief She was advised to try your Rosadalis as a tonic—which she did—imagine my surprise and gratification, when I found her appetite returning. Slowly she regained her strength, her cough and night sweats gradually cease l, and she is now, after taking five bottles of your medicine, apparently as well as ever.

Yours respectfully,

MRS. E. ANN SMITH.

Rosadalis cures all Skin Diseases,

DR. LAWRENCE, Wilson N. C.:

My Dear Sir—For the last ten years (until recently) I suffered with an inveterate eruption of the skin—called by physicians "Salt Rheum," with which I suffered terribly; the pain and itching was almost intolerable. I tried several of the best physicians in Europe and this country—have visited several celebrated Springs—spent thousand of dollars—and failed to get any better. In December 1866, being in Charleston S. C., I was told by a gentleman at the hotel, that he had been cured of a bad letter by a medicine called "Rosadalis." I resolved to try it, without any hope though of its doing me any good. I procured a bottle of Messrs. King & Cassidey, and commenced taking it. Finding, to my surprise, that I was improving, I bought four other bottles; but before commencing on the last two, I found I was completely well—the disease having entirely disappeared.

Enclosed find "One Hundred Dollars," which please accept as a token of my gratitude. Why do you not make your invaluable Rosadalis widely known?

Your sincere friend,

W. T. SELTZER.

Major John W. Dunham, one of the editors of the Wilson "North Carolinian," says in the issue of the 20th April, 1867: "I believe from personal experience, that the Rosadalis is the finest tonic ever prepared."

IN MEMORIAM.

BY THE AUTHOR OF THE "CONQUERED BANNER."

Young as the youngest who donned the Gray,
True as the Truest that wore it—
Brave as the Bravest, he marched away,
(Hot tears on the cheeks of his mother lay,)
Triumphant waved our flag one day,
He fell in the front before it.

Firm as the firmest where duty led,
He harried without a falter—
Bold as the Boldest he fought and bled,
And the day was won—but the field was red,
And the blood of his fresh young heart was shed
On his country's hallowed altar.

On the trampled breast of the battle plain,
Where the foremost ranks had wrestled,
On his pale, pure face not a mark of pain,
(His mother dreams they will meet again,)
The fairest form amid all the slain,
Like a child asleep—he nestled.

In the solemn shades of the wood that swept
The field where his comrades found him;
They buried him there—and the big tears crept
Into strong men's eyes that had seldom wept.
(His mother, God pity her—smiled and slept,
Dreaming her arms were round him.)

A grave in the woods with the grass o'ergrown,
A grave in the heart of his mother—
His clay in the one lies lifeless and lone;
There is not a name, there is not a stone
And only the voice of the winds maketh moan
O'er the grave where never a flower is strewn,
But his memory lives in the other.

A POLITICAL SARMENT.

"Beware of men that come to you in sheep's clothing, but within they are ravening wolves."

BELUVED BRUDDERN:—I am gwine to do on dis, de present 'casion, what I nebber done afore since I commenced spounding de gospil—I is gwine to preach a politics sarment. I is a free American of African 'scent, and I'm got jest as good a right to preach politics as brudder Beecher, or any odder man. De tex say: "Beware of men that come to you in sherp's clothin'."—Now, brudders, de question axes itself, what is sheep's clothin? You all know dat it is wool; and you all likewise knows dat de black man got wool, stid of hair, on his craniology. So, widout strechin de figger more 'n a polititioner stretches his conscience, we may read de tex in dis wise: Beware of the white man dat comes to you in wool—dat is, comes to you in de guise of the black man; dat make out dat dey lub de black man—but within they he raven in wolves seekin nigger votes. Dey comes to us in sheep's clothing; dey call you feller citizens; dey is laborin and sufferin persecution for de sake of de black man; dey respect der cullurd brudderin; dey lub der cullurd sisters—sometimes, my brudders, not wisely but too well. Dey come to you in sheep's clothin; dey is gwine to do great things for de black man; dey is gwine to gib ebery black man a farm and ebery woman a grand planner and larn all de little nigs to cipher multiplication and talk Greek. Dey is gwine to give de black men franchises and cibil rights and buros and pluribus unums and de debil knows what; make Christmas come twice a year, and ebery third year a jubilo. Bewar of dem! dey like de black man and woman like de wolf lubs sheeps, and, dat you know, is for de sake ob de sheep's meat.

Dey is raven wolves, my brudderin, seekin nigger votes. Dey is broken winded politicians, my bredderin, dat decant white men won't vote for, and dey thinks dey can get de votes ob de black men, by pullin wool ober der eyes. Dat's why dey go for nigger suffrage, when de Lord knows de niggers done suffered enough already with their foolishness. What good is it a gwine to do a nigger to vote? It ain't gwine to put meal in de barrel, meat in de pot, taters in de ashes, nor corn in de hoss trough. What would you know about de laws, my brudderin? Which of you would know a tariff from a terrapin, if you's to meet it by moonlight? Which way would you start to go to Congress, if anybody was fool enuff to elect you dar? Bruddern, sometimes der are more noses dan eyes. Has any ob you got sense enuff to tell how dat must be?—If you don't know nuffin 'bout de laws, how you gwine to make de laws or mend de laws? I knowed a smart nigger once who undertook to mend his watch. He got it to pieces in less dan no time, but arter he worked on it awhile de debbil himself could'nt put it togedder. Dat's 'bout de fix you'll git de Government in if you go to tinkerin with it. Better be hoein' corn to make bread for de ole woman and chilluns. You all knows how to do dat, but you don't know how to make laws or mend 'em and you don't know what sort of men to choose to to do it. You jest as apt to vote for a fool as for King Solomon, and you is heap apter to vote for a rascal dan a good man, kase de tex says its de ravenin wolf that comes in sheep's clothin, and black man cant tell sheep from wolf. Dat's what dese mean whites know, and dat's de reason dey want you to vote. Dey fraid spectable white folks won't vote for 'em, and dey think dey can fool de black men, cause dey don't know nuffin and is easy soft sawdered. Dar's chestnuts in the fire, my brudderin, and monkeys want 'em; he rake 'em out wid de cat's paw; if it burn de cat it don't burn de monkey. What de mean white people care how much de nigger suffer, so dey git and keep de offices? What dey care if a hundred sassy, foolish niggers get killed, as dey did at Orleans, so as dey get up a bellaballoo agin de "rebel" as dey all clebber white men, and get an excuse to bab de handle ob de vice turned one more time, and dey get de rule ob der betters?—Bewar ob dem, my brudderin! When de monkeys see chestnuts in de fire, and begin to be mighty perlite to de cat, let de cat take care ob her paws.

Dey is ravenin wolves, my brudderin, seeking whom dey may devour. Dey show der lub for de black man by taxin his cotton three cents a pound, while his chilluns is crying for bread, his blankets a dollar a pair, while he is shiverin with cold. Bewar of dem, belubbed brudderin, if you lets dem fool you wid der soft sawder, you'll be wuss dan poor Esau, who sold his birfright for a mess of pot-ash; and he nought knowed fore he traded for it dat it want fit to eat, but only to make soap out of. Finally, in conclusion, my brudderin, bewar of men dat comes to you in sheep's clothin, but within dey is ravenin wolves.—Banner of Liberty.

Gen. Canby's Election Order.

HEADQ'RS SECOND MILITARY DIST.,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 18, 1867.

General Orders No. 101.

By the terms of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," passed Mar 2d, 1867, and of the Acts of March 23d, and July 19th, 1867, supplementary thereto, it is made the duty of the Commanding General of this Military District to cause a registration to be made of the male inhabitants of the State of North Carolina, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards and qualified by the terms of said Acts to vote, and after such registration is complete, to order an election to be held at which the registered voters of said State shall vote for or against a Convention, for the purpose of establishing a Constitution and civil government for the said State, loyal to the Union, and for delegates to said Convention—and to give at least thirty days' notice of the time and place at which said election shall be held; and the said registration having been completed in the State of North Carolina, it is ordered:

First, That an election be held in the State of North Carolina, commencing on Tuesday, the 19th day of November, 1867, and ending on Wednesday, the 20th day of November, 1867, at which all registered voters of said State may vote "For a Convention," or "Against a Convention," and for delegates to constitute the Convention—in case a majority of the votes given on that question, shall be for a Convention, and in case a majority of the registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such Convention.

Second. It shall be the duty of the Boards of Registration in North Carolina, commencing fourteen days prior to the election herein ordered, and giving reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of five days the registration lists, and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered, to strike the name of such person from the list; and such person shall not be entitled to vote. The Boards of Registration shall also, during the same period, add to such registers the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said Acts—who have not already been registered.

Third. In deciding who are to be stricken from or added to the registration lists, the Boards will be guided by the law of March 23, 1867, and the laws supplementary thereto, and their attention is specially directed to the Supplementary Act of July 19th, 1867.

Fourth. The said election will be held in each County or District at such places as may hereafter be designated, under the superintendence of the Boards of Registration as provided by law and in accordance with instructions hereafter to be given to said Boards in conformity with the Acts of Congress and as far as may be with the laws of North Carolina.

Fifth. All Judges and Clerks employed in conducting said election shall, before commencing to hold the same, be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United States.

Sixth. The polls shall be opened at such voting places at eight o'clock in the forenoon and closed at four in the afternoon, of each day, and shall be kept open during those hours without intermission or adjournment.

Seventh. No member of the Board of Registration, who is a candidate for election as a delegate in the Convention shall serve as a Judge of the election in any County or District which he seeks to represent.

Eighth. The Sheriff and other peace officers of each County are required to be present during the whole time that the polls are kept open, and until the election is completed; and will be made responsible that there shall be no interference with Judges of elections, or other interruption of good order. If there should be more than one polling place in any County, the Sheriff of the County is empowered to make such assignments of his deputies, and other peace officers, to the other polling places, as may, in his judgment, best subserve the purposes of quiet and order; and he is further required to report these arrangements in writing to the Commander of the Military Post in which his County is situated.

Ninth. Violence, or threats of violence, or of discharge from employment, or other oppressive means to prevent any person from registering, or exercising his right of voting, is positively prohibited, and any such attempts will be reported by the Registrars or Judges of elections to the Post Commander, and will cause the arrest and trial of the offenders by military authority.

Tenth. All bar rooms, saloons, and other places for the sale of liquors by retail, will be closed from 6 o'clock of the evening of the 18th of November, until 6 o'clock of the morning of the 21st of November, 1867, and during this time the sale of all intoxicating liquors at or near any polling place is prohibited. The police officers of cities and towns, and the Sheriffs and other peace officers of Counties, will be held responsible for the strict enforcement of this prohibition, and will promptly arrest and hold for trial all persons who may transgress it.

Eleventh. Military interference with elections "unless it shall be necessary to repel the armed enemies of the United States, or to keep the peace at the polls," is prohibited by the Act of Congress approved February 25th, 1865, and no soldiers will be allowed to appear at any polling place, unless as citizens of the State they are qualified and are registered as voters, and then only for the purpose of voting; but the Commanders of Posts will keep their troops well in hand on the days of election, and will be prepared to act promptly if the civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace.

Twelfth. The returns required by law to be made to the Commander of the District of the results of this election, will be rendered by the Boards of Registration of the several registration precincts through the Commanders of the Military Posts in which their precincts are situated, and in accordance with the detailed instructions hereafter to be given.

Thirteenth. The number of delegates to the Convention is determined by law and is the number of members of the most numerous branch of the Legislature for the year eighteen hundred and sixty, and this number, one hundred and twenty, is apportioned to the representative Districts of the State in the ratio of registered voters as follows:

RAILROADS.

ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD AND NORTH CAROLINA GRAND TRUNK RAILROAD,

From Charlotte and all Points on the N. Carolina and its Connecting Railroads, to the Seaboard at Newbern and Morehead City.

THE STATE OWNS THREE-FOURTHS OF the North Carolina Railroad and three-fourths of the ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD. This is the

STATE LINE,

To its OWN SEAPORTS and on its OWN BOATS. All other lines are in opposition.

A six per cent dividend on this line will save the people from taxation $200,000 per annum.

Under a resolution of the Stockholders of the N. C. Railroad, all Freights are to go via Goldsboro', unless otherwise specially directed by shippers.

When at Goldsboro', you are only sixty miles from the shipping point, instead of one hundred and sixty as via Weldon, and eighty via Wilmington. Our Steamers are equal to any other line, both for Freight and Travel. Time as short as by any other, and as cheap.

THIS is the Line

To ENCOURAGE. You get dispatch, safety, but one handling, and less Railroad transportation than by any other line.

Three-fourths of the PROFITS made on this line go directly into the STATE TREASURY, and if encouraged, you will soon be relieved from heavy taxation at least two hundred and ninety-five thousand dollars.

The Railroads composing the N. C. GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY LINE have recently agreed to unite in a

GREAT THROUGH LINE

Route to all the Northern Markets, on equal terms and charges, via our own ports to and from the North.

Cars run through to all points without breaking bulk.

For information about shipping, apply to Messrs;

Notice to Shippers of Freight.

THE SEABOARD INLAND AIR LINE Via Portsmouth, Va.,

IS THE ONLY DIRECT LINE BETWEEN Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and the Carolinas.

It is UNRIVALED in point of speed and safety of Freights, being from

FORTY TO SEVENTY HOURS

in advance of all other lines, and at as low rates.

It offers daily communication with Baltimore, daily communication with Philadelphia.

Five Steamers each week to and from New York.

Two Steamers each week to and from Boston.

It is the only line having these advantages, and by which there is but one handling of freight.

Cars are loaded at the wharves in Portsmouth and are run through to destination.

Be careful to direct your Consignors to ship only

From Baltimore, by the Norfolk or Bay Line Steamers, foot of Union Dock.

From Philadelphia, by the Annamessic Line, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Depot, or by Clyde's Line, 14 South Delaware Avenue.

From New York, by Clyde's Old Dominion Steamship Line, Pier 37 North River.

From Boston, by the Norfolk Steamship Line, end of Central Wharf.

All losses, damages, or overcharges promptly adjusted on application to

JAS. McCARRICK,
Trace Agent, Portsmouth, Va.

Have your freight marked Via Portsmouth, Va., and in shipping to Philadelphia, marked Via Clyde's Line, or Via Annamessic.

THE OLD RALEIGH & GASTON RAIL ROAD, THE SHORTEST, QUICKEST, SAFEST AND BEST LINE, NORTH AND SOUTH, TO BE LEFT OUT IN THE COLD, UNLESS SHIPPERS SPECIALLY SAY VIA. R. & G. R. R!

WE inaugurated and are the Great Through Inland Air Line Route to all the Northern Markets, and have successfully worked the Line to the entire satisfaction of Shippers. North and South, for the last ten years, as the ten Thousand Shippers in North and South Carolina will testify. We paid the State near Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for her Interest in this Road—thereby saving the people from Taxation for all time to come 240,000 per year; and we unhesitatingly declare that we can and will give more dispatch to all points, North and South, than any other Line.

NOTICE!

The Great Inland Air Line Freight ROUTE,

A Cheap Cotton Press.

FARMERS, BEFORE YOU BUY A PRESS OR build a Screw, enquire into the merits of the

GODWIN COTTON PRESS.

Hear what the following reliable gentlemen say:

I have seen Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press work at Mr F. E. Smith's plantation, and it does all that he says it does in his advertisement and more. I think it superior to any other mode of packing Cotton, and saves both time and labor.

W. R. SMITH.

I have used the above mentioned Press, and consider it the best I ever saw for packing Cotton.

THOS. J. VAUGHAN.

I have packed about 100 bales of Cotton with Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press, and take pleasure in recommending it to the farmers as a great labor-saving machine. It does not cost more than half as much as a Screw, and is worth twice as much.

It is so convenient, and takes fewer hands to do as much work as a Screw. I would pay the person of a Press rather than allow a man to put up a screw on my place for nothing.

D. EDMONDSON.

I have used the above mentioned Cotton Press, and it do as better than a Screw. Takes less hands, does not waste Cotton, and is much cheaper.

J. H. CURRY,
Sup't W. H. Smith's Plantation.

I have packed about 70 bales with Godwin's Cotton Press, and am certain it is the best, cheapest, most compact and durable Press in existence, costing only half, at first, and lasting twice as long as a screw.

PETER E. SMITH,

I have never seen the Cotton Press of Mr. Jno. H. Godwin at work, but have no doubt, from the certificates of the gentlemen above, that it performs all they say of it. I know them to be gentlemen of character and veracity, and that their statements are entitled to credit.

RICHARD H. SMITH.

The last name is one of our most honorable and respectable citizens, well known as a former member of the Legislature. I offer this PRESS as combining more advantages than any one now in use; it is adapted to large or small farms, and is so simple and cheap, that any good mechanic can build it. It is well adapted to

WATER-POWER.

It is 10 or 11 feet wide, 3 feet and 3 inches thick; top of frame above ground, 16 feet; highest point of Lever, 18 or 19 feet. The platform on which the bale is turned out, is 10 feet above ground.

Length of box, 10 feet in the clear.

Length of bale 5 feet, by 2 feet 4 inches. Weight 500 or 600 lbs. It is put up flat against the Lint Room, thereby preventing the scattering of the Cotton and need of baskets.

The Press is chiefly built of scantlings.

The Inventor has spared no pains in his experiments to make it practicable, convenient and cheap. I charge

$25 for a Single Right.

The total cost, including cover and everything, is about $150. Much of that, farmers are not in the habit of including as cost.

I think I can sell County rights at about $10 by the hundred.

THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine

IS OFFERED TO THE Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.

Until the invention of the

Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER,

which, being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always

Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; "a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench."

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause.

You are saved from the immense water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify.

I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.

No House, Store, Factory, or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.
